

International Public Goods (IPG) in agricultural research for development

Workshop Maputo, Mozambique, Thursday 27th November 2008

Place: Joachim Chissano International Conference Center – Room N.9

(Agenda updated 20 November)

Co-organizers

Global Forum for Agricultural Research (GFAR), CGIAR Science Council, Alliance of CGIAR Centers

Aim

To discuss and update international public good concepts as utilized by the CGIAR for international agricultural research for development.

Co-Chairs

Ruben Echeverria (Science Council) – Mark Holderness (GFAR) – Rodomiro Ortiz (Alliance Deputy Executive)

Rapporteurs

Science Council Secretariat

Tentative Program/Speakers

- 8:30            Opening remarks by organizers (GFAR, Science Council, Alliance)
- 8:35            Derek Byerlee (SC) – IPGs in international agricultural research
- 9:00            Anne-Marie Izac (Alliance Office) – IPGs in integrated natural resource management research
- 9:20            David Williams (SGRP Coordinator) - Why the CGIAR genebanks are IPG
- 9:40            Victoria Henson-Apollonio (CAS/IP Coordinator) – Intellectual Property and IPGs
- 10:00           Break
- 10:20           Peter Ballantyne (Consultant, ICT-KM) - Making CGIAR research accessible as IPG
- 10:45           Panel Discussion: Jonathan Woolley (WFCP); Gebisa Ejeta (SC); Dennis Kyetere (NARO Uganda)
- 11:30           General Discussion: CGIAR research-for-development as IPG
- 12:30           Adjourn

Format:

1. Each talk to be given in 15 minutes to allow a few minutes for Q&A
2. Panel discussants will have five minutes to provide their perspectives
3. During general discussion, interventions should be short and to the point
4. Each speaker should submit a brief note (about 5 pages) before arriving to Maputo